

OUR HEALTH AND SAFETY

Commitment

Our beliefs allow us to adhere to the following principles:

- ... No job is important enough to endanger the health or safety of any of our employees and partners.
- ... The behaviours of the organization influence individual behaviours.
- ... Operational excellence is based on the absence of injury and illness.

These lead us to adopt a health and safety strategy and management philosophy based on the three following elements:

- ... Leadership
- ... Control of the workplace
- ... Accountability and commitment of everyone to health and safety

Therefore:

Kruger Inc. is committed to becoming a world-class organization and a leader in health and safety.

Kruger Inc. and all of its divisions are committed to providing a safe and sound work environment for all of its employees and partners.

Consequently, Kruger Inc. and all of us are committed to:

- ... Complying with all applicable safety regulations and standards for its operations.
- ... Evaluating and monitoring risk analyses and implementing control measures.
- ... Preventing injuries and occupational illnesses.
- ... Facilitating the sharing of health and safety management best practices.
- ... Defining priorities and annual objectives in order to continuously improve our performance.
